Dedication

Through his camera lens he captured our four years at Marshfield High. Academics, sports and social activities, all recorded on video to freshen our memories as time passes. Through his enthusiasm, sense of humor and good example he captured our utmost respect and our hearts.

The class of 1989 proudly dedicates its yearbook to Mr. Anthony Steward, teacher, supporter and friend.

All the world's a stage, And all the men and women merely players: They have their exits and their entrances; And one man in his time plays many parts . . .

The Class of 1989 and the staff of MHS fondly remember Mrs. Barbara Saunders, who played the part of a Spanish teacher, but more importantly that of a quiet, gracious person, gentle of speech, beneficent of mind.

Technical Advisor

Dear Seniors,

The year 1989 marks two important landmarks- the beginning of a new century for Marshfield High School and the end of your thirteen years of public school. Both events should be significant for you.

We've had two good years together. Thanks for the wonderful memories. God bless you all. I love you.

Grrr

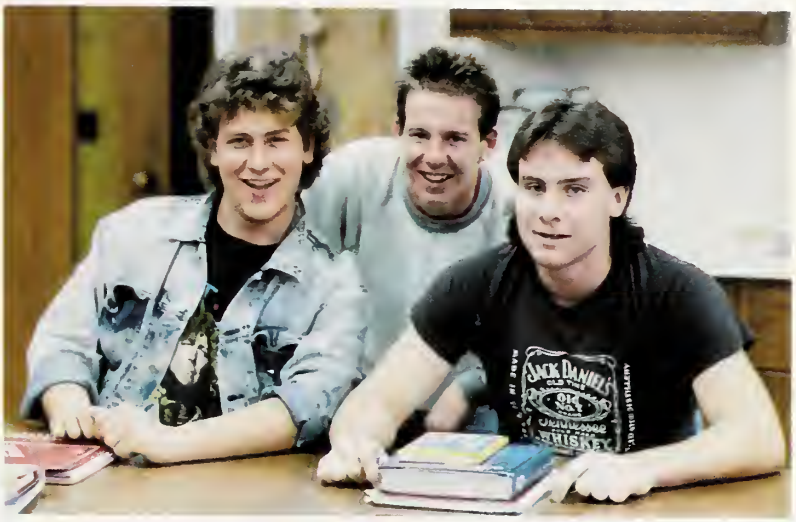
Just take the stupid picture already.

Tall Cool One

What's happening hot stuff?!

Where's the beef?

Class Couple



The good, the bad and the ugly

I think it's stuck.

Are we having fun yet?

'Stew's Crew'

What a nice . . .

Not funny at all.

Siamese Seniors

I don't get it.

I thought it was kind of funny.

Attack that apple!

It wasn't that funny.

Fascinating.

Why me?

Hey Colby, What's next?

How's the pen taste Tracy?

Gee, that pen looks good.

Who's bad?

The Three Amigos!!

Come here often ladies?

At You Kid."

Girls, Girls, Girls . . .

Grateful to be here.

I used to have a china cabinet.

Ambition; Professional Wrestler

Anfanasiew's fantasy

Camera? What camera?

Duncan, Duncan, What's your function?

And the backstroke!

Where the boys are.

OH!! Is that my name?

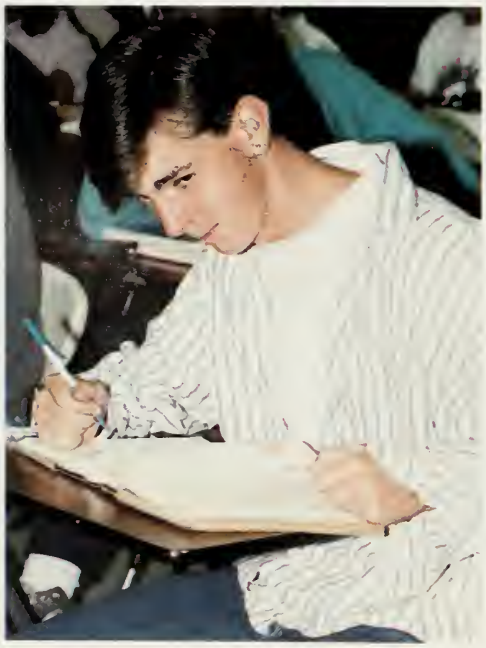
Tastes great, less filling.

We will pomp you up!

Lunch is my favorite subject.

True Colors

A man with a plan.



What are you doing down there?

Boys will be boys.

Marsfield Mazes

Early morning on Wednesday, October 12, before the sun came up, if you passed by Marshfield High School, you would have seen a car-lined street, volunteers working busily and a sign that read, "We need your hands." During the next five days, with the hard work of hundreds of Marshfield residents (including some MHS students) the community playground was born and dubbed 'Marshfield Mazes'.

THE FAIRVIEW INN

133 Ocean St. Brant Rock
834-9144

The Inn

Build in 1874 by Martin Swift, the Fairview has been in continuous operation ever since. Originally established as a boarding house for Boston's vacationing elite, the Fairview has undergone many changes during it's one hundred plus year history. During the 1920's and 30's the building was home to the exclusive and elegant "Como Club". Here patrons began the evening by dining to the music of strolling violinists, and later retired to the gambling tables at the rear of the restaurant.

Legend has it that the club was named for the ship Como which sailed the east coast running rum during the prohibition. The entrance to a tunnel from the ocean, through which contraband liquor was smuggled into the club can still be seen in the basement. The ocean side entrance to the tunnel has long since collapsed. Incidentally, over the fireplace in the lounge is a painting of the legendary "Como" done in 1933 by Allen Davidson.

Over the years the Fairview has become famous for it's wholesome, hearty food and picturesque location. As always, all meals are prepared to order from the finest available ingredients.

Both the dining room and the lounge are open year round with the added attraction of a sun deck or warm days and a fireplace for cooler nights. We hope you have an enjoyable meal. We appreciate any comments you might have.

Thank you for your patronage.

Dear Steven,
With memories of all you've been,
With pride for all you are,
With hope for all you'll be . . .
And with Love for Always.
Congratulations!
Mom, Dad and Jay

PROMISE YOURSELF

To be strong, that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel
that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side
of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best,
to work only for the best
and to expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance
at all time and to give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
